

Moffat Library of Washingtonville

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS DEVICES POLICY

Library visitors must turn off external speakers, ringers or other audible signals of cell phones, smart phones, laptop computers, and all other electronic communications devices while in the Library.

Use of such devices for purposes of engaging in verbal communication or audible listening is prohibited because other Library users and Library staff may be disturbed by such use.

Any failure to comply with this policy may result in the loss of one or more Library privileges. Library staff will post signs notifying the public of this policy.
